

Down To You

Jennifer Rush

Tonight is the night
Silence has taken its toll
Don't want to seem unkind
But the stop-and-go system of love just ain't right
Love calls, but your heart won't sit still
Curtains fall on the way that you feel
I wanna know, is this for real?
You say there's nothing you can do
But you know that's not true 'Cause it's down to you
It all comes down to you
When the night is through
It all comes down to you
Down to you So here I am
Time's come for taking a stand
No, I can't read your mind
So why don't you lay it right down on the line? Under the gun and pushed to the wall
When all's said and done, is the order too tall?
You'll never know 'til you let go and fall
Does it mean enough to you
That you need my love too? 'Cause it's down to you
It all comes down to you
When the night is through
It all comes down to you Does your heart starts to run
The closer my love gets to you?
Down to you Love calls, but your heart won't sit still
Curtains fall on the way that you feel
I wanna know, hey, what's the deal? Down to you
It all comes down to you
When the night is through
It all comes down to you Does your heart starts to run
The closer my love gets to you?
(It's down to you)
Someday you'll meet someone
But I've done everything I can do Down to you
Down to you
Hey, it's down to you
Down to you
Hey, it's down to you
(Don't fight tonight, baby)
This time, it's down to you

(It's alright, you don't have to try)
Ooh, down to you
(Hold tight, don't let go, baby)
Down to you
(It's alright, stop wondering, wondering why)
(Don't fight tonight, baby)
(It's alright, you don't have to try)
