

More Beautiful Than Silence

K'naan

[Chorus:]

Turn the light off

It's a light on in your heart

So let it be your guidance, guidance

Open your mouth if you would say

Could be more beautiful than silence, silence[Verse 1]

Ok, ain't it funny how the talk is always talking

Never firing, but always shining cocking

When they're cocky until they end in parking lots

Suddenly they got parkinson, they can hardly talk

No karate buddy, no Pilates buddy

It's a new game, no attare buddy!

Body talk, well I'm used to buddies talk

I've seen shit to give new meaning to the buddy shop

Look, I know you think I'm so righteous,

But mother fucker, I'm also rifles

They try to tell these niggers I'm a baby in these dippers

I'm on my own shit, lighters

I don't assimilate, I got my name in ciphers

I don't discriminate, I got friends who are snipers

But some of them ended up being lifeless

Cause they kept silent, survivors[Chorus:]

Turn the light off

It's a light on in your heart

So let it be your guidance, guidance

Open your mouth if you would say

Could be more beautiful than silence, silence[Verse 2]

I'm the quiet type, breathe and steady

Never small talk speak when necessary

In the streets, I see niggers shop with machetes..

My Jamaican girl say 'talk to me baby!'

What's on your mind, can say cemetery

Death do its part, memories, I marry

Got a library with no lies baby

And all the books look like they're made of strawberries.

It ain't easy being me

Cause my own fans can't relate to my streets

And my streets can't relate to dough in the yeast

But I'm beats, so I make bread on release

I'm releasing my dinners, get the beat a life life I gave a fetus a semen
Free to kick in the in your belly, that's free to breathing
Don't say nothing, cause now we're dreaming
