

The Stars Are Ours

Mayer Hawthorne

Hey, ho Sister's schoolwork is ready
I was high as a kite
We're gathered round the kitchen table now
And we're coming back to life
Rumor spread like a virus
Ross' folks house tonight
We're making plans across the cable now
In the ultraviolet light Well we're breakin' all the rules
'Cause they're getting in the way
And we'll never be as young as we are today
And they're claiming I'm a fool
But I look the other way
They can't tell me what to do when I'm old and grey But now the stars are ours tonight
We'll worry 'bout tomorrow when the
Sun starts shining bright, then we'll sleep
But now the stars are ours tonight
We'll worry 'bout tomorrow when the
Sun starts shining bright, then we'll sleep In the Chrysler Lebaron
White with black velvet seats
The trunk is shakin' up the neighborhood
As we terrorize the streets
Allan's head's out the window
Cigarette in his teeth
The neighbors tellin' us to slow it down
Shake their heads in disbelief Well we're breakin' all the rules
'Cause they're getting in the way
And we'll never be as young as we are today
And they're claiming I'm a fool
But I look the other way
They can't tell me what to do when I'm old and grey But now the stars are ours tonight
We'll worry 'bout tomorrow when the
Sun starts shining bright, then we'll sleep
But now the stars are ours tonight
We'll worry 'bout tomorrow when the
Sun starts shining bright, then we'll sleep Hey, ho Champagne toast to the ceiling
Peel the paint off the walls
The gang is hangin' from the balcony
There will be hell to pay tomorrow
Back in class on Monday

Mad high-fives in the hall
This one is going in the history books
With the Legends of the Fall Well we're breakin' all the rules
'Cause they're getting in the way
And we'll never be as young as we are today
And they're claiming I'm a fool
But I look the other way
They can't tell me what to do when I'm old and grey But now the stars are ours tonight
We'll worry 'bout tomorrow when
The sun starts shining bright, then we'll sleep
But now the stars are ours tonight
We'll worry 'bout tomorrow when the
Sun starts shining bright, then we'll sleep
