

Slave to the Machine

Lynam

Eddie is flying high again
In his own world bathin' in fortune and fame
Forgot about the time
He wore a janitors clothes
This time you're gonna know

So let's rock (let's rock)...let's roll (let's roll)
Start up and ready to go
I don't care (I don't care)...what it means (what it means)
We're all slave to the machine this time
Did you get to shine

The world keeps spinning, even though
The more you learn the less you know
Shut your mouth, open your eyes
Caught up in a thousand lies
Forgot about the time
That you let go
This time you're gonna know

So let's rock (let's rock)...let's roll (let's roll)
Start up and ready to go
I don't care (I don't care)...what it means (what it means)
We're all slave to the machine this time
Did you get to shine

So let's rock (let's rock)...let's roll (let's roll)
Start up and ready to go
I don't care (I don't care)...what it means (what it means)
We're all slave to the machine this time
Did you get to shine
