The Insider

The Everymen

The actions of a few as displayed on the news, turns what we do, into falsities far from truth.
Today we'll break through the walls in our way.
Today we'll prove these lies are false and we're here to stay, we've worked so damn hard for what we have today.We can't let down our guard.
We'll prove we take pride in or name,
today we'll break through the walls set in our way, today we'll prove these lies are false and we're here to stay.This negative media attention is going to bury us alive.
Youth denied expression from what the public misunderstands.
We won't turn our back, we will stand strong.
