Fighting For My Life

Savannah Outen

You stole my words and twisted them to yours 'till there was nothing left to say
You were the chill in the air whenever I turned Turned away
Honestly you had to know how much it was killing me I had no choice,
I just had to leaveYou tried to lock the door with me forever
But I broke my own way out
You tried to build a wall to tell me never, but I was never backing down
Oh you tried to take my wings I,
I just kept on flying Fighting, fighting, fighting for my life!Did your best to twist the lie and hold me under till I couldnt See
Tried your hardest to take and break the voice that I have deep inside of me
I cant pretend I didnt learn the hard way but never again
You had your chance, but it just had to endYou tried to lock the door with me forever
But I broke my own way out
You tried to build a wall to tell me never, but I was never backing down
Oh you tried to take my wings I, I just kept on flying
Fighting, fighting, fighting for my life!No you wont take me crying
No more tears falling on the floor
All the pain that Ive survived
Made me stronger than ever beforeeeeee, yeahYou tried to lock the door with me forever
But I broke my own way out
You tried to build a wall to tell me never,
But I was never backing down
Oh you tried to take my wings I, I just kept on flying
Fighting, fighting, fighting for my life!
You tried to lock the door with me forever
But I broke my own way out
You tried to build a wall to tell me never,
But I was never backing down
Oh you tried to take my wings
I, I just kept on flying Fighting, fighting, fighting for my life!
