

Evolution

Ghost Town

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Somethin' horrible awoke
In us last night
But it feels so right
A blessing in disguiseSomething Beautiful and free
From this mess in sea
For a lust that bleeds
Boy you and meOut with the good and in with the rude
Take all the bad I know what to doEat them alive
Just to survive
We'll never be fine
Just getting byFuck all the bullshit
And all the promises
We're not scared anymore
We're not scared and we'll rise to the trussesWe're not human anymore
With this evolution
Love is an illusion
Break out of your visuals
Start a revolution
This is evolutionSomethings risin' underneath
These empty streets
Slowly digs it's teeth
Into your memoriesAnd when the world starts to shake
From a million voices
Screaming on repeat
We're screaming!Your truth is bittersweet
There's something terrible
It's hard to seeEat us alive
Just to survive
We'll never be
We'll never be
(We'll never be fine)We're not human anymore
With this evolution

Love is an illusion
Break out of your visuals
Start a revolution
This is evolutionWe'll never be fine
Just getting by
We'll never be fine
Just getting byOn your knees
Before you crawl
Your scream and fall
But no one's listening
Na, nana na nana
Na, nana na nanaWe're not human anymore
With this evolution
Love is an illusion
Start a revolution
This is evolutionStart a revolution
Start a revolution!
Start a revolution
Start a revolution!
