Miserable Girl

Soulwax

Taking your time answering eyes
And you're thinking of why instead of about
And it's taking up time, you never had
And you're making up like, nothing is saidThere were all these cries and don't ask whys
A kiss will never taste like goodbye
And it's almost fine but all this time
The feeling is so hard to denyWhy not till it's over?You're just a miserable girl
Trapped in a healthy body
You're just a miserable girl
Trapped in a healthy body
You're such a catholic girl
Trapped in a guilty bodyTaking your time answering eyes
And you're thinking of why instead of about
And it's taking up time, you never had
And you're making up like, nothing is saidThere were all these cries and don't ask whys
A kiss will never taste like goodbye
And it's almost fine but all this time
The feeling is so hard to denyWhy not till it's over, until it's over?You're just a miserable girl
Trapped in a healthy body
You're just a miserable girl
Trapped in a healthy bodyYou're just a miserable girl
Trapped in a healthy body
You're such a catholic girl
Trapped in a guilty bodyYou're just a miserable girl
Trapped in a healthy body
You're such a catholic girl
Trapped in a guilty body
