Broken Hearted

Karise Eden

Sad tears fall from my clown
Truth lies in a loss of all
I know you all too well
Locked up in your own selfBlack heart, black heart
I should've seen it from the start
So dark, so dark
You pull me underneath
And I saw your black heart, black heart
I never felt so torn apart
Black heart black heart
It ain't no turning back
Now I see you your black heartThis rule comes closing in
With lies spoke too thin
Tracked by the chains you wore
Show close afraid no moreBlack heart, black heart
I should've seen it from the start
So dark, so dark
You pull me underneath
And I saw your black heart, black heart
I never felt so torn apart
Black heart black heart
It ain't no turning back, now I see you your black heart
