

What's Left of Me

blessthefall

Don't let Your eyes go shut on me
I won't let Your voice be silenced, silenced Blood is dripping from my hands
Tell me, is this what You wanted?
I'm the one that walked away
For me, it's all that I needed
With nowhere to turn I'll find truth Only with You, what's left of me is Yours to keep
What's left of me is Yours
Only with You, what's left of me is Yours to keep What's left of me is Yours One last chance for salvation, salvation See this empty hole inside
Don't let it keep growing deeper
I'm the one who runs away
It's true I'm lost on the outside
With nowhere to turn I'll find truth Only with You, what's left of me is Yours to keep
What's left of me is Yours
Only with You, what's left of me is Yours to keep
What's left of me is Yours Breathe You in and it's all over now when my arms open
Breathe You in and it's all over now when my arms open
Breathe You in, I'll breathe You in Breathe You in, I'll breathe You in Breathe You in and it's all over now
When my arms open, when my arms open
Breathe You in and it's all over now
When my arms open, when my arms open Oh, I'm drowning, oh, I'm drowning, oh, I'm drowning
Forgive me, forgive me, forgive me
