

The Self Surrendered

Intervals

Gracefully flowing in streams of harmony
Unified by one dance, one song, one pulse
Unified in the core that binds them
To take them forward
Free of self and identity
The nameless can live painlessly
There's no harm in knowing what the future brings
To know that it is safe
So we set the stage for them to live and breathe
Strung to our fingertips
Free of self and identity
The nameless can live painlessly
Reflections remain unclear
What is seen in themselves, what's seen in the mirror
The self-surrendered are after all
Minds reduced to marionettes
Forever performing on our stage
