

Unattainable

Ashylus

Only when the goal is unattainable
Do I start to feel like I'm losing myself And this deep secret that hasn't come out yet is burried, down deep with the rest I can't coase you into this one Jealousy lay all your spells to bed
I'll choose long-loved instead If only songs we're sung
To guide the doubtfull ones Beyond the rough where not as much is good enough Oh if you find yourself for once a lonely one I'll be waiting here with open arms I can't coase you into this one Jealousy lay all your spells to bed
I'll choose long-loved instead
