Say After Me

Bic Runga

Moon glow, white light will bathe your pillow
Loneliness leaves no shadow, where did you go?
Be cool now, quietly up and leave you
Must I be your fool and lead you? How gracious we go
Love ends in a fire
Fire through the streets, set them alive
Don't say your goodbyes, say after me
I'll go my own way, baby, yeah
It's a crying shame to have only hopeless sorrow
To have no more days to borrow, the distance will grow
A new day, out walking cold and endless
All to be stoned and painless, I'm lost in the snow

Love ends in a fire
Fire through the streets, set them alive
Don't say your goodbyes, say after me
I'll wish you well then, baby, yeah
Raise to the ground, I'll burn you down
Before you go and break me
Burn like the sun, what has become
Of you and me, my baby, yeah
Love ends in a fire
Fire through the streets, set them alive
Don't say your goodbyes, say after me
I'll go my own way, baby, yeah
