There Was No Thief

Relient K

For a time I thought there was a thief among us
I thought I'd track him down but prior to my pursuit
The smoke had cleared and to my disbelief
There was no thief 'cuz it was me that lost you
There was no thief 'cuz it was me that lost youI guess it's safe to say you're never coming back
And I understand why you wouldn't want to
I guess it's up to me to find a way to get to youAnd there's just one last thing that I have to say
As we reflect on the mess of all of this I've made
It was cowardice that made me push you away
I was so afraid 'cuz you were so much better than meI can't see you getting used to
Living in the midst of your perfection
And I'm so lost how can you trust
Somewhere the sun is always shinin', ohAnd there's just one last thing that I have to say
As we reflect on the mess of all of this I've made
It was cowardice that made me push you away
I was so afraid 'cuz you were so much better than meI guess it's safe to say you're never coming back
