Oceans

Oceans By Slip on Stereo

Do you ever feel like youâ€™re all alone?
Like a ship without a sail on open seas
Drifting and swaying to the beat of the oceans

Heartbeat
Canâ€™t swim
Canâ€™t sink

And youâ€™ve got a compass but youâ€™ve no cause
Cause the map thatâ€™s in your hand it wonâ€™t show no course
Itâ€™s up to you now you need not delay
The choice has always been yours

So sail it away from the rocks and away from the storm
Letâ€™s go back to the start where we first left the shore
Thereâ€™ll be dark clouds come just remember
Thereâ€™s always been calm waters over the oceanâ€™s floor

So come and set your sail
Come and set your sail

Itâ€™s like the wind has torn a hole in your sail
Itâ€™s like the course has been plotted by the winds and the seas
Drifting and swaying to the beat of the oceans

Heartbeat
Canâ€™t swim
And you canâ€™t sink

So sail it away from the rocks and away from the storm
Letâ€™s go back to the start where we first left the shore
Thereâ€™ll be dark clouds come just remember
Thereâ€™s always been calm waters over the oceanâ€™s floor

So come and set your sail
Set your sail
Oh set your sail

So sail it away from the rocks and away from the storm
Letâ€™s go back to the start where we first left the shore
Thereâ€™ll be dark clouds come just remember
Thereâ€™s always been calm waters over the oceanâ€™s floor

So come and set your sail
Come and set your sail
Oh come and set your sail
