

Tears (Album Version)

Skindred

This just ain't fair
What you trying do to me
Trying make me crazy
Telling me just how it should be
And I've got to know
Which way are we gunner go
Gunner take it fast or slow
But with you I never know
Its never the same these things that your saying
And who is to blame this world it is swaying
I know when you're lying
There's no point in crying
Well if that's how the girl is treating you man,
You're out of your mind
She is disrespecting the programme
And you can't see the signs
The girls she's got you like a puppet,
Man you're deaf or you're blind
Blackmail you throw
Using me emotionally
That ain't how it should be
Lock me up and eat the key
Let your love flow
That's the way its meant to be
Love should flow more easily
There's enough for you and me
It's never the same these game that you're playing
And who is to blame my world it is swaying
I know when you're lying
There's no point in crying
Those crocodile tears won't work
Stop using your tears
