The Difference Between Love and Hell

Sahara Hotnights

I thought I could prove you're wrong and
I thought I could change that mind of yours
You go back to where you belong now
You go back, you're not safe with me anymoreStop lookin' for perfection
Stop lookin' for an easy way to my heart
You keep movin' in the wrong direction
You keep fooling yourself while we're falling apartMy baby's gone blind, he can't tell
The difference between love and hell
It's okay, you may go right away
You're finally free from my spell
(Free from my spell)So give me one good reason why I'm needed tomorrow?
One reason to be here when you wake up
Fingers numb and my eyes so hollow
But hey, you can try to talk me out of giving upMy baby's gone blind, he can't tell
The difference between love and hell
It's okay, you may go right away
You're finally free from my spellIf I'd do it all over
Wouldn't throw it all away
'Cause it's takin' us nowhere
And you're finally free from the spell, you can't seeWell I'm askin' for your full attention
I'm askin', do you know why people stay on?
You won't get far with your good intentions
We won't get far and you're better off on your ownI got sick of setting the standards
I found a challenge in trying to hit the new low
Grew tired of being the commander
Anything to get a reaction but I should have knownThat my baby's gone blind, he can't tell
The difference between love and hell
It's okay, you may go right away
You're finally free from my spellMy baby is free from my spell
Said, hey, my baby is free from my spellNow my baby's gone blind, he can't tell
The difference between love and hell
It's okay, you may go right away
You're finally free from my spellWell my baby's gone blind, he can't tell
The difference between love and hell
It's okay, you may go right away
You're finally free from my spellIf I'd do it all over
Wouldn't throw it all away
'Cause it's takin' us nowhere
And you're finally free from the spell, you can't see
