

No Friend At All

In Due Time

are you my friend or my foe?
sometimes I just don't know cause it seems like your always on my side but I know your lies and what you try to hide if I could I would leave you laying mark my words
    remember what im saying but this is like throwing a punch into the wind (in to the wind!)
    adversary
    enemy
    it's all I can do
all I can do to resist you
    your forked tongue
    (only breathes lies!)
    you have ruined
    (too many lives!)
    now the time has come
    your domination will die
    I'm giving out
    but I'm not giving in cause you would never give up on me you know how this ends God's wrath has sealed your fate
    your forked tongue
