Face the Wind

Aeon Spoke

I stood to face the wind
Cold drops of rain hit my face and it stung boy
But I faced the windThunder warned me to come down
But I couldn't tell if her storm horses were around
So I faced the windNo one will know
No one will know (the pain or)
The reasons why we're tryingI felt dizzy and framed
My hands began to shake from
Hunger and sleep not around boy
So I faced the windNo one will know
No one will know (the pain or)
The reasons why we're tryingWe're trying
Till I face the wind
