Had Enough

Danko Jones

You always think you're right
But when you realize you're wrong
You turn your head and pass the phone
No need to head out there
You're never playin' fair
then wonder why you always drown alone
You're always sayin' thing that are exaggerated
It's hard to know just who you are
You keep on prayin' but things just stay the same
You Fail to look to see that everybody's been waitin'
When you cry at night, alone and don't know why
There's no one left and I'll be walking home
When you burn in hell remember what I said I've had enough
I've had enough
You're always sayin' things that are exaggerated
It's hard to know just who you are
You keep on prayin' but things just stay the same
You fail to look and see that everybody's been waitin'

When you cry at night, alone and don't know why
You had your chance I've had enough
I've had enough
(x2)
I'm sick of sufferin'
You give me nothin'
I need somethin'
(x2)
You're only playin'
We're all fadin'
We're sick of waitin'
When you criticize
With your pretty eyes
You drove a stake right through my heart
When you burn in hell
Remember what I said
You had your chance I've had enough
I've had enough (x6)
