

Man Enough

Def Leppard

You got this reputation for callin' all the shots
I got your invitation so show me whatcha got (unh)
Are you man enough?
Ya got me in a cold sweat with a lingerin caress
A bullet in your chamber with no return address
If you can keep a secret then we can make a deal
Put your finger on your trigger and show me how you feel
When you're moving to the music you got voodoo in your hips
And the devil would approve it, so the question on my lips(Chorus)Are you man enough? (x3)
To be my (x3)
GirlYou got my full attention when you move across the floor
Divine intervention comes a-knockin on my door
I got no time for talking just need some company
Let your fingers do the walking
All over meWhen you're moving to the music you got voodoo in your eyes
Let the Devil try to prove it, but the question will arise(chorus)Are you man enough? (x3)
To be my (x3)
Girl (x3)Soul went down the river. (x5)Are you man enough? (x6)
To be my girl(chorus)
