

Raise Your Love

Rhodes

I was just a young child mind, then
Always listening
I don't want to lay in your choices now
Too young to begin
It's always on my mind now, the world I adore
Caught up in a lie now, it feels like a war
Feels like a war
Raise your love, raise your love
Feels like a storm
Raise your love, raise your love
Maybe I'm a soul survivor now
You're the one who died
I can keep your secret safe for a while
Maybe I'm a liar
It's always on my mind now, the world I adore
Caught up in a lie now, it feels like a war
Feels like a war
Raise your love, raise your love
Feels like a storm
Raise your love, raise your love
Feels like a war
Raise your love, raise your love
Feels like a storm
Raise your love, raise your love
Feels like a war
Raise your love, raise your love
Feels like a storm
Raise your love, raise your love
