

Lyin' Eyes

Europe

I can tell
Just by the look
In your eyes, that the love is gone, that I once took
So much has changed
In the way you live
I bet there's nothing left that you can ever give
The words of a madman are spoken
I guess I'm not the only one
The heart of a sad man is broken
Eyes, lyin' eyes
You can fool anyone without disguise
Eyes, lyin' eyes
Your look is cold as ice
It's in your blood
It floats in your veins
I sacrifice myself but all I feel is pain
You've done me wrong
You've been so bad
It's the last time a battle is lost
Where I'm the one who's sad
The words of a madman are spoken
I guess I'm not the only one
The heart of a sad man is broken
Eyes, lyin' eyes
You can fool anyone without disguise
Eyes, lyin' eyes
Your look is cold as ice
Your look is cold as ice
I wish you'd die
I wish you'd break down and cry
I wish you'd move
And then I know I'd be satisfied
Can't you see
I'm on the edge
I can't look down
Is it me who's lost and never found?
The words of a madman are spoken
And I guess I'm not the only one
The heart of a sad man is broken
Eyes, lyin' eyes
You can fool, you can fool anyone
Eyes, lyin' eyes
Your look is cold as ice
Look is cold as ice
