One common cause, to inforce allah's laws
Bombs burst in the air, light up the night like stars
As a rocket flare, I prepare for warfare
Destroying all the devil's ideas, while cowards run in fear
Thre's no retreating, no surrender
No victory, no peace, till the enemy is deceased
And the beast, cease to exist, from being devilish
Running from amongst us, only in God do I trust
So I bust to leaving bodies lying in the dust
Soldiers dying in their own iniquity,
And hell is the penaltyKung fu sample:
