

Pour Me

Sebastian Kole

She said goodbye the last time
I wish it were like last time
She changed her mind and came around again
But it's been three days, still no word
How'd she leave me? Oh, the nerve of her
Now I'm sitting at the bar singing
Pour me, pour me out
Pour me another round
See, I found my enemy at the bottom of this drink
Bartender won't you please drown him for me?
Oh, drown him for me
Drown him for me
Oh, drown him for me
Guess who's drunk again?
This bars an old familiar friend
Drinkin' till I'm stumbling down
And you were on my mind
I know it's not the best of times to call but I need you now
Oh, pour me
Pour me out
Pour me another round
See, I found my enemy at the bottom of this drink
Bartender won't you please drown him for me?
Oh, drown him for me
And I could run a million miles to hide all these sober thoughts and drunken times
But I've got to stop pretending I'm not falling for you
When I've already spread wings to fly
Pour me, pour me out
Pour me another round
See, I found an enemy at the bottom of this drink
Bartender won't you please say it's not me?
Oh, say it's not me
Say it's not me
Oh, say it's not me
