Fool Me Once (Album Version)

Lindsey Webster

Explain to me your position
And I'll try to see the light
I've already heard it's a lesson
For me to try to learn
But they say fool me once, fool me twiceAnd there won't be a third time for you to try to break my heart
Or convince me that I don't know better and maybe I should try to startExplain to me, I will listen
How you think it's fine to lie
Guess you look at it like an omission
And that may work for you
And you might fool me once, fool me twice
But there won't be a third time for you to try to break my heart
Or convince me that I don't know better and maybe I should try to start
So long you convinced me that we shouldn't be apartFirst time, shame on you
Two times, shame on me
Three days I waited
But you don't seem to come around
And there won't be a third time for you to try to break my heart
Or convince me that I don't know better and maybe I should try to start
So long you convinced me that we shouldn't be apart
(But you know I'm better off without you)
And there won't be a third time for you to try to break my heart
