

Everyone Else In the World

Stina Nordenstam

You'll have to stand perfectly still
You'll have to close your eyes
And when I am finished
I don't believe you can go
Everyone else in the world
Would love me by now
Would love me from day one
But not you
Everyone else in the world
Would love me by now
Would love me in a crowd
But not you
False promises of love
Are still promises of love
Just look this direction
And I'll consider you mine
Everyone else in the world
Would love me by now
Would love me from day one
But not you
Everyone else in the world
Would love me by now
Would love me in a crowd
But not you
