Shotgun

Alice Ripley

suitcase
end table
radio
a box full of shoes and records ready to go

take me along
I wanna ride shotgun
I wanna laugh at your jokes
I wanna know you better than anyone but anyone can see why you'd run

I packed
a small bag can't you see a truck full of things you cherish
what about me

take me along
I wanna ride shotgun
I wanna laugh at your jokes
I wanna know you better than anyone
but anyone can see why you'd run

when I tried to find a substitute
a box full of hearts
and letters
he wasn't you

take me along
I wanna ride shotgun
I wanna laugh at your jokes
I wanna know you better than anyone

waiting couldn't sleep

Christmas eve
you sent a box of presents
but I still believe

you'll take me along
I wanna ride shotgun
I wanna laugh at your jokes
but anyone can see why you'd run
