The Astral Project

Orange Goblin

Shooting star in the night sky, burning fire and light
You can reach me tomorrow, you can hold me tonightWon't you let yourself go, release your heart and your soul
Forget your grief and your woe and take a trip to the stars, let's goThrough the pillars of time you can fly to me
Through the realms of illusion and beyond destiny
Won't you hold me tonight, you know the feeling is right
We could be as high as a kite, let's take a trip to the stars, let's goTime to reach for the sky, it's time to say goodbye
It's time to open your wings 'cause now's the time to fly
Oh what a feeling it is to drift alone with the stars
To feel the warmth of the Moon, to hear the calling of Mars
Tonight forever begins within the temples of space
A better future is rising for the human race
The interplanetary dream unfolds before our eyes
An astrological step into tomorrow skies
So won't you set the controls now for this alien light
You can reach me tomorrow, you can hold me tonight
You can hold me tonight
Won't you hold me tonight...Fly into the psychedelic glow
Welcome to my futuristic show
Far beyond the universe we know
Chasing dreams, it's to the Sun we goYeah, oh yeahFly into the psychedelic glow
Welcome to my futuristic show
Far beyond the universe we know
Chasing dreams, it's to the Sun we goYeah, oh yeah
