

Green And Blue

Deep Forest

it's in anomaly, this land inside of me, though my mind's all tied up it's breathing through dichotomy may be majority, but my world's not black&white;, it's green&blue; let my body go i'm fallin into it, and losing interest in the world we used to know i'm seen through and i go running through the city at a spectacle of modern ingenuity, don't go let my body go
