Girl Like Me

Miranda Lambert

You don't need a girl like me
I got bruises you can't see
And when the lights go out I won't be around
You don't need a girl like meYou can't have a heart like mine
But you can hold it for awhile
When the lights go out I won't be around
You can't have a heart like mineThere's a rule that goes unwritten
And I break it from time to time
If you're a fool enough to listen
Then I'm fool enough to lieThat's the kind of girl I am
I take off before I land
And even though you think you can
You can't change the way I am'Cause the rule remains unwritten
I still break it from time to time
If you're fool enough to listen
Then I'm fool enough to lieYou can't change the way I am
You don't need a girl like me
