

Away From Me

Puddle of Mudd

Yeah
LiesLook at me now just sitting here by myself
And I think you found someone else
Now I'm gonna have to find a way to put the bottle down
And why can't you see that I'm drowning in a pool of miseryI'm always afraid
That you're gone away from me
I'm always afraid that you're lost in somebody
I'm always afraid
That you're gone away from me
I'm always afraid that you're lostSo here I am, I don't wanna be by myself
And I think you're fucking someone else
Now I'm gonna have to find a way to take the knife out of my back
And how could you leave me stranded in a closet full of bonesI'm always afraid
That you're gone away from me
I'm always afraid that you're lost in somebody
I'm always afraid
That you're gone away from me
I'm always afraid that you're lostMaybe you could let me stay
Maybe just for one more day
You could help me stay the same
Maybe things won't ever change
Maybe we could taste the rain
You could all push me out the wayNow I sit here by myself
Think about somebody else
How could you let them take you away from me
There's somebody else, there's somebody elseI'm always afraid
That you're gone away from me
I'm always afraid that you're lost in somebody
I'm always afraid
That you're gone away from me
I'm always that you're fuckingI'm always afraid
I'm always afraid
I'm always afraid
I'm always afraidI'm always afraid
I'm always afraid
I'm always afraid
I'm always afraid
Away from me
