

Rocks At My Window

Bridgit Mendler

First Verse:

Sitting at home I turn on the TV
Its all reality
And I don't want to watch stupid people.
Got my phone,
check the texts between, between you and me Cause I guess you popped into my head
It should not be Friday night Why am I, here home alone when

Chorus:

We can runaway from the weekend
But I'm here alone, wish you go throwing rocks at my window.
We could, count the stars from your car hood, but I'm here alone, wish you go throwing rocks at my window ba ba ba da ba ba throwing rocks at my window

Second Verse:

its been, far too many movies, sinking into me, so now i wait for my prince charming, but i got, this picture in my head, of this chapel for our wedding, so i guess i got it bad, just one step at a time, why am i here home alone when

Chorus:

we can run away for the weekend, but im here alone, wish you go throwing rocks at my window.
We could, count the stars from your car hood, but Im here alone, wish you go throwing rocks at my window

Bridge:

T H R O W I N G youre throwing rocks, youre throwing rocks, rocks
We can runaway from the weekend
T-H-R-O-W-I-N-G your throwing rocks, I wish you where throwing rocks, rocks
T-H-R-O-W-I-N-G your throwing rocks, I wish you where throwing rocks, rocks
T-H-R-O-W-I-N-G your throwing rocks, I wish you where throwing rocks, rocks
T-H-R-O-W-I-N-G your throwing rocks at my window

Final Chorus:

We can runaway from the weekend
But Im here alone, wish you go throwing rocks at my window.
We could, count the stars from your car hood, but Im here alone, wish you go throwing rocks at my window
(You are throwing those rocks at my window, your throwing them rocks at my window, I can hear ya, I can hear them rocks at my window)
ba ba ba ba ba ba Throwing rocks at my window
ba ba ba ba ba ba
Throwing rocks at my window
