White Noise Maker

Frank Black

You know I hear a lot of talk
So I'm headed for the stereo store
To get a white noise maker and turn it up to tenOr maybe the interior
Of somewhere like Siberia
Yea, the Yak is back againLike harvest moon o'er my head
Yes, it was
That billboard prose shinin' on me
And it shines because
It's been so long since my tel star
I hope it crashes in the seaOr maybe the interior
Of somewhere like Siberia
Yakety Yak is back againYou know I hear a lot of talk
So I'm headed for the stereo store
To get a white noise maker and turn it up to tenLike harvest moon o'er my head
Yes, it was
That billboard prose shinin' on me
And it shines because
It's been so long since my tel star
I hope it crashes in the sea
