

Vinyl

nowhere man and a whiskey girl

I've placed the bounty on my own head this time Shilly-shally collection of the dividends as he bumzles through the record bins with glorious absence of "E"
with glorious absence of "E"

I could if I had spoke in class yesterday An essay of wee-sings Remembers all the notes he brings

The timing is Sometimes off in The phonograph Timing is off in the phonograph

I dance the Lindy alone until the band all went home and Oh, was I tired
They're all alone (x4)
Until the band all went home

We proved we're ready paying special attention
We sit by the screen
A wadded clover in my fist
As he bends
He spins his record disc
But the scratches cannot be heard The scratches
can never be heard

This is not the first film we've made to win
Be seated by seven
As we try it all again

This time with original soundtrack
This time with a new soundtrack
