Close Your Eyes

Paradise Lost

For our Saviour could not deny
All born the same
All born the same
You won't hear the truthI can feel it, close your eyes
I still see
You invent the proofI can feel it, close your eyes
I still see
You won't hear the truthBorn a failure could not deny
All born the same
All born the same
You won't hear the truthI can feel it, close your eyes
I still see
You invent the proofI can feel it, close your eyes
I still see
You won't hear the truthFor our Saviour could not deny
You won't hear the truthI can feel it, close your eyes
I still see
You invent the proofI can feel it, close your eyes
I still see
You won't hear the truth
