

This Is Not Goodbye (iTunes Originals Version)

Melissa Etheridge

Bravely you let go of my hand
I can't speak yet you understand
Where I go now, I go alone
This path I walk, these days of stone And the angels are calling I must go away
Wait for me here, silently stay
And don't ask me why
Only believe this is not goodbye All of my strength, all my desire
Still cannot melt this breath of fire
I go to meet some kind of test
Bury the truth that scars my chest And the angels are calling and calling I must go away
Wait for me here, silently stay
And don't ask me why
Only believe this is not goodbye I gathered all my courage
I shaved off all my fear
With this banner on my shoulder
I hold your essence near And the angels are calling and calling and calling I must go away
Wait for me here, silently stay
And don't ask me why
Only believe this is not goodbye
Only believe this is not goodbye
