Eagle Song

The Staves

I am a cardinal red
I am of blood and of bones and of heart and of head
A thousand miles ahead and behind
Oh to be lost, oh to be wasting my timeOn a hill we lay in the sun
In the foot of a statue of all battles lost, battles won
I remember you're voice and you're clothes
A well chosen passage of words from a book I don't knowOh me, oh my, oh man what have I become Running around writing letters I'll never send homeCall me in the morning I'll be alright
Call me in the morning I'll be alright
Call me little honey and I'll be fineCall me in the morning I'll be okay
Call me in the morning I'm far away
Call me little darling and I'll be fineAn eagle flew above us
Blankets wrapped around us
Lucky that she found us
Rooted to the groundThe eagle flew above us
Blankets wrapped around us
Lucky that she found us
Rooted to the groundNo one will believe us
Mountains as our witness
Blankets wrapped around us
The eagle flew aboveBy the lake
So high, so highCall me in the morning I'll be alright
Call me in the morning I'll be alright
Call me little honey and I'll be fineCall me in the morning I'll be okay
Call me in the morning I'm far away
Call me little darling and I'll be fine
