Breaking and Reaching

Snapcase

I run and I fall while the world keeps on running running right by me don't bother to lend a hand they want me to follow but I can't understand and I'll wait
I'll wait
but they don't acknowledge me I've bought the answers even when I disagreed breaking
breaking my inhibitions
reaching reaching my destinions when you're sinking you'll learn to edify treat yourself like someone give someone a piece of your mind regrets are tokens of what has gone untold you're only special when you break from the mold
breaking
reaching my destinations
