

Empty with You

The Used

I haven't lost anything except my mind
Expect a thousand confessions that you will not find
I try to take off my head sometimes,
Because I can't escape the memories
I haven't lost anything except my mind (except my mind) You could be empty
And I can be right here empty with you
Or you could be hollow
And I can be right here hollow with you
If you want to say goodbye to everything,
I could say goodbye too
I can be right here empty with you. I haven't wasted anything except my time (except my time)
Forget the treasures we burned because we'll be just fine
I try to take off my head sometimes
Because I can't escape for the life of me,
I haven't lost anything except my mind (my mind) You could be empty
And I can be right here empty with you
Or you could be hollow,
And I can be right here hollow with you
If you want to say goodbye to everything
I could say goodbye too
I can be right here empty with you. Instead of going underground
Instead of calling them out
Instead of running 'cause you're still breathing
Instead of swallowing lies
Instead of buried alive
Let's twist the knife 'til they can't stop bleeding
If you need a confession, I'm guilty
Let's chase the knife 'til they can't stop bleeding
Do you think I feel sorry? Forgive me.
Let's chase the knife 'til they can't stop bleeding
Instead of going underground
Instead of calling them out
Let's chase the knife 'til they can't stop bleeding. You could be empty
And I can be right here empty with you
Or you could be hollow
And I can be right here hollow with you
If you want to say goodbye to everything
I could say goodbye too

I can be right here empty with you

Songwriters

QUINN ALLMAN, JEPH HOWARD, ROBERT MCCRACKEN, DANIEL WHITESIDES
Published by
Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Peermusic Publishing Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>