Sensitive Kind

J.J. Cale

Donâ€™t take her for granted, she has a hard time
Donâ€™t misunderstand her or play with her mind
Treat her so gently, it will pay you in time
Youâ€™ve got to know sheâ€™s the sensitive kind
Tell her you love her, each and every night
And you will discover she will treat you right
If you believe, I know you will find
There ainâ€™t nothing like the sensitive kind
She gets lonely waiting for you
You are the only thing to help her through
Donâ€™t take her for granted, she has a hard time
Youâ€™ve got to know sheâ€™s the sensitive kind
