

I'm Me...

TCP

though once a slithered form i stand erect transformed to ask this question at your ease my blood once cold now warm my altered self reborn what kind of human can i be this shape you've taken is forbidden your changeling trick cannot succeed you must begin with what you're given is how its been and has to belook for high secret inner visions words scribed in rock in code in these to get to where the heart is hidden behold, the truth can set you free to dream... believe...reach... deep... to see... that we... can lift ourselves i wish you wellmy shape shift soul device at will can change entice... take human form to seek advancehow to proceed from here... what comes if what we fear... allies gets fortified insidehet hey huti must abandon this like human form with power twist naga cut your serpent tiesshed it.. shed it skin.. shed it.. shed it skin.. shed itshed it.. you won't regret it no you gotta yet the self and shed it then forget it come on and let it go

the alter ego

tomorrow can... chi chi chi change all the world up on my head has made me who i am a vagabond a friend to you all the days and all the nights i work my way to you to you by design though serpentine before this life is through.

you believe me... receive me... for wh

near

it's all that I could do... to be... like youbelieve me... receive me... for who I am. transcendoh so far and yet so
near

i'm me, i'm free... myself againbelieve me... receive me... for who I amli'm me
