

Oceans

Rebecca Ferguson

Nameless faces changeless places oh, I knew them all mass confusion
No illusion
just waiting for the sky to fall when I keep on moving refuse to give in don't let the dark see you dying stand your nighting
as we fighting them they'll hear shake in the ground because the love that keeps us strong goes deeper, goes deeper than oceans
because the love that keeps us strong
goes deeper goes deeper than oceans ooh ohh aah ahhpicking up our feet raising our head so many lines have been crossed the tears we've cried the blood we bleed for every drop has a cost but we keep on pouring our hearts keep roaring our strength will never run out
as we fight them they'll hear a shake in the ground
oohhh ahhh ahhtthey will hear us roar they will hear us roar
they will hear us roarbecause the love that keeps us strong

deeper (ooh ooh, ahhh ahh)
