Awake

Assemblage 23

I am lost
The footprints that I left have disappeared
For now I am driving blindAccelerate
Without a destination to welcome me
This road is just an endless loopCH
Every time I close my eyes
The noise inside me amplifies
I can't escape
I relive every moment of the day
Every misstep I have made
Finds a way it can invade
My every thought
And this is why I find myself awakeDirectionless
The letters on the signs have long since faded
The sky conspires to swallow mePaid the price
For burning all the maps to warm myself
I threw their ashes to the wind(CH)Walk away
Time to leave the realm of the familiar
To find a place where sleep can comeHesitate
For one last time I shout into the sky
To wake the ones I'll leave behind
