

Mannequin

The Summer Set

You and I fell apart like a rag doll torn at the seams
Then he came in stitched up the pieces like some kind of hero
I, I bet it was easy to act like a damsel in distress
I guess you got what you wanted
Hell pick you up just to knock you down,
One day Ill see you both in hell.
Is it everything that you thought itd be?
When hes lying there I bet you think of me.
I swear hell only dress you up,
Go out just to show you off.
Girl I dont know what you see,
Youre more than just a mannequin to me.
Now you and I are staring at each other from across the room
And there he goes, hanging on tight like the necklace I gave you
Im moving on, living well is the best revenge.
Oh is this, is this what you wanted?
Hell pick you up just to knock you down,
One day Ill see you both in hell.
Is it everything that you thought itd be?
When hes lying there I bet you think of me.
I swear hell only dress you up,
Go out just to show you off.
Girl I dont know what you see,
Youre more than just a mannequin to me.
You and I fell apart like a rag doll torn at the seams
Then he came in stitched up the pieces like some kind of hero.
Hell pick you up just to knock you down,
One day Ill see you both in hell.
Is it everything that you thought itd be?
When hes lying there I bet you think of me.
I swear hell only dress you up,
Go out just to show you off.
Girl, I dont know what you see,
No girl I dont know what you see.
Youre more than just a mannequin to me.
