The Chosen One

Bread

I was your first and you were my last and we are the journey's end
I was the blues and you were my sunshine friend
Now I'm your lover, you are my cover
Keeping the loneliness from meYou are my chosen one, arise and be the one
The chosen oneYou are the sea and I am the sailor, riding the perfect wave
I could've drowned but you came around and save me
Now I'm your hopes and you are my dreamer
Helping me see beyond tomorrowYou are the chosen one, you'll always be the one
The chosen oneOut of the darkness, out of the shadow
Oh wherever you go, I'll follow along
Wherever you lead me, whenever you need me
I'll bring you my message, I'll bring you my songYou are the chosen one, arise and be the one
The chosen oneDarlin' I choose you, I'll never use you
I couldn't abuse you with all that you've done
For you are my sunshine, you are my lifeline
Forever my sweet wine, forever the one
