Silence

Sevendust

Step down on the hand that keeps me down again
Will I drown again, will it ever end right now?
I feel so overwhelmed
Somebody took it away
Deafening silence breaks
The walls I built around me
The guilt that feeds my soul
Is here surrounding
I know now that the man who holds me back again
Will go down again, will it ever end somehow?
This to shall pass and then I know I'll get it back
Somebody took it away
Deafening silence breaks
The walls I built around me
The guilt that feeds my soul
Is here surrounding
Deafening silence breaks
The walls I built around me
The guilt that feeds my soul
Is here surrounding
Silence, the silence kills me
Overwhelming, the silence kills me
Deafening silence breaks
The walls I built around me
The guilt that feeds my soul
Is here surrounding
Deafening silence breaks
The walls I built around me
The guilt that feeds my soul
Is here surrounding
Step down
Step down
