

Chilly Winds

Deluce's Patent

I'm goin' where those chilly winds don't blow, oh baby
Goin' where those chilly winds don't blow
I'm goin' where I've never been before, oh baby
Goin' where those chilly winds don't blow

Chilly winds are driving me away, oh baby
Chilly winds are driving me away
I'll go and find the sun again someday, oh baby
Chilly winds are driving me away

I'm goin' where I'll never have the blues, oh baby
Goin' where I'll never have the blues
I'm gonna leave this hammer, leave this line and you, oh baby
Goin' where I'll never have the blues

Chilly winds are driving me away, oh baby
Chilly winds are driving me away
I'll go and find the sun again someday, oh baby
Chilly winds are driving me away

Who's gonna love you when I'm gone
When I leave this lonesome town?
I'm goin' away to find my home
Where those chilly winds don't blow

I'm goin' where those chilly winds don't blow, oh baby
Goin' where those chilly winds don't blow
I'm goin' where I've never been before, oh baby
Goin' where those chilly winds don't blow

Goin' where those chilly winds don't blow
Goin' where those chilly winds don't blow
Goin' where those chilly winds don't blow
