Smiling

Operation Ivy

At the party, at the bus stop, at the bar
You're lookin' at women because your score is under par
When you find her, it dosen't mean anything.
You wonder why your life is so boring.
A mind is a terrible thing to waste
You would gladly waste it just to save face.
Her desire is your wish, without it you are lost
Integrity is fragile but you ignored the cost.
Smiling when your friends are watching you.
One night stand, car keys in hand,
You've fulfilled your gender's sexual demand.
Are you feeling insecure and empty,
When you're rushing to report it to your peers!?!?
