

Beaujolais

The Alan ...

No clock beside my bed, don't try to wake me
No phone upon my wall, who's going to call?
No knock upon my door, no news to shake me
Nights like the one before, I can't take no more
 Beaujolais goes straight to my head
Beaujolais puts me to shame and I don't know
 Why I'm in this place or how I came
Beaujolais and I go crazy, Beaujolais, I can't explain
But it helps me to forget the past and ease the pain
 One race that I can't win with an alter ego
 One chance to sink or swim, what am I to do?
 One tail that I can't shake, wherever I go, he go
 One circuit I can't break, it's a catch twenty two
 Beaujolais goes straight to my head
Beaujolais, the one to blame and I don't know
 Why I'm in this place or how I came
Beaujolais will be my ruin, Beaujolais, I can't complain

'Cause it helps me to forget the past and ease the pain
Beaujolais, Beaujolais, Beaujolais goes straight to my head
 Beaujolais puts me to shame and I don't know
 Why I'm in this place or how I came
Beaujolais and I go crazy, Beaujolais, I can't explain
But it helps me to forget the past and ease the pain
 Beaujolais goes straight to my head
Beaujolais, the one to blame and I don't know
 Why I'm in this place or how I came
Beaujolais will be my ruin, Beaujolais, I can't complain
'Cause it helps me to forget the past and ease the pain
 Beaujolais, Beaujolais, Beaujolais
 Beaujolais, Beaujolais, Beaujolais
 Beaujolais, Beaujolais, Beaujolais
 Beaujolais, Beaujolais, Beaujolais
